A MESSAGE FROM THE RIGHT EMINENT GRAND COMMANDER

Sir Knights,

As spring approaches so does the Easter Holiday, one of the most important for all Christians. Both Orthodox and Catholic churches celebrate the day of Christ's resurrection with deep veneration and solemnity. Protestant churches celebrate his resurrection more joyously. However, non-religious people also revel in Easter festivities, such as Easter egg hunts, festivals, and family activities.

How should we celebrate Easter as Knights Templar? I encourage you to go to Easter sunrise services and Church services in your uniform without sword and with or without your belt/chapeau. Tell everyone that you are a Christian Knight - a Knight Templar in the Masonic Fraternity. Be proud and set the example. "Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father which is in Heaven." Matthew 5:16

Someone once said, "Hope is hearing the tune of the song of a brighter tomorrow. Faith is singing the tune today." Let us sing the Templar tune today and every day and remember that our blessed Emmanuel is with us!

Yours in all Knightly Courtesy,
Brandon S. Yarbrough, KCT
Right Eminent Grand Commander
