From Swaddling Wrap to Crimson Robe

December is the month we celebrate the birth and life of Jesus Christ, nothing on this earth has so much effect on me as “From Swaddling Wrap to Crimson Robe” and I find it appropriate to share now.

“Now he lies in a humble manger, just a babe in cradle bare. Now his place a lowly lamb stall, represents his kingdom here. Now his word is but a whimper, his decree a baby cry. Yet as the sound of rushing water his command will multiply, such majesty from Bethlehem, from swaddling wrap to crimson robe, would I think that one so small could be the savior of us all.

“Now a calf becomes his footman, here a lamb becomes his knight, yet the dove will be an archer launching arrows into flight. Now he stands in splendid glory, he appears in dazzling light. Kings and lords kneel now before him seeking refuge in his sight. Such majesty from Bethlehem, from swaddling wrap to crimson robe, would I think that one so small could be the savior of us all.

He’s our savior!”

As you enjoy your family, friends during this Christmas month, may the light, spirit and hope of what Jesus Christ our lord and savior be with you.

May you feel the love of your fellow companions and Sir Knights.

The celebration of Christmas is about the life and service of Jesus to all mankind. And as Sir Knights, we will defend the right for all those who to celebrate and rejoice in Jesus Christ!
