Still time to study for ritual competition

The first Indiana Grand Commandery Ritual Competition will be held at the Indiana Grand Conclave in Muncie on Saturday, April 25.

Grand Commander Michael Robbins KCT attended the Ohio Ritual Competition at last year's Ohio Grand Conclave, and decided to emulate their program.

"Part of my 'push' for this year has been to encourage Sir Knights to get up off the sidelines and learn a bit of ritual, or for seasoned Sir Knights to learn some new ritual," Robbins said. "This program seems an ideal way to accomplish that and have some fun in the process."

The competition will be based on competitors' command of ritual accuracy and delivery. Three addresses in the Commandery Ritual have been chosen for this initial competition: The Junior Warden's Address, found on pages 113 and 114, the Prelate's Address, found on page 136 through the middle of page 138, and the Ode to the Skull, found on page 131. You may choose to compete in one or all three Addresses.

Awards will be presented for first place scores in each of the three categories. You may participate in one or all three of the addresses.

Times will be scheduled so as not to conflict with a Sir Knight who may be drilling also.

There is only one requirement to compete in this competition: You must be a member in good standing of any Constituent Commandery of Indiana at the time of the Grand Commandery Conclave. The complete rules for this competition will be available on the Grand Commandery website under the download section.

Registration forms must be completed and submitted by April 17. Forms will be available by contacting Ritual Competition Chairman, Deputy Grand Commander Ed Fodrea at hfa.phd1@gmail.com, or are available on the Grand Commandery of Indiana website: www.indianaknightstemplar.com
