A Thanksgiving Message from the Grand Prelate

Nothing beats a thankful heart and Thanksgiving is the perfect occasion to let your heart speak for all the things that bless us. It's a very special day when we can express our thanks to God and everyone in our life for all good things.

Yes, by all means enjoy the feasting and fun of this day and let sheer happiness rule each minute of it. Let the distraction of the holiday activities be a blessing in disguise that takes you away from your everyday life and gives you a moment reflect on your blessings and give thanks for them.

And, A Thanksgiving Prayer

Oh, Lord, we are thankful,
 For the good things life has held for us,
 For the love of those within our home,
 For friends to greet wherever we roam,
 For the health and strength wherewith to toil,
 For our bounteous food from freedom's soil,
 For the right to pray and worship as we may,
 Thanks to thee for all this and more,
 And through these gifts, one by one,
 May thy will on Earth be done.
 Amen.

Yours in Faith
 SK Charles Selberg

Dave's Word

Friendships are a true blessing that we can easily take for granted. The Thanksgiving season is an ideal time to reflect on the friendships we have and maybe to link up with an old friend that we have not had an opportunity to visit with for a while.

Do you ever need the address, phone number or email of a fellow Sir Knight? You can call, text or email our Grand Recorder, Leo Rognlin 701-388-5483, yorkritenorthdakota@gmail.com, and he can supply them from our database. Please be patient as it may be a few hours or a few days before SK Leo can get back to you since he has other commitments. Social distancing is a way of life on the plains worsened by COVID-19. Take the time and first step to reach out to an old friend. It will do great things for him and you.
