

NEW JERSEY SUPPLEMENT

SIR KNIGHT WILLIAM M. KRZEWICK, III RIGHT EMINENT GRAND COMMANDER

Sir Knight:

As a parent my Children are in full swing of the educational year. I see my children learning to adjust, becoming diverse in their ability to communicate their thoughts and ideas. The new verbal communication they are now forced to create, without body language. The point is clearer, the point is direct, and the answers flow with intrigue and a fully develop thought process. I do feel, at times, a little concerned that they are not able to learn that social, in person, interaction skill set that a class room offers, but they have grown and developed and I know when the time comes, with a little initial pause and hesitance they will fall back into the swing of being children. As Sir Knights, especially those of use with children in the schooling years, as well as those that have graduated, let us guard them and help guide them for learning is that valuable gift of growing knowledge to be continuously given.

"For the protection of wisdom is like the protection of money, and the advantage of knowledge is that wisdom preserves the life of him who has it".

Ecclesiastes 7:12

Be zealous for your Christianity, learn what you can and share what you have become; for we must continue our Christian paths and be ever ready.

I charge you in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to judge the living and the dead, and by his appearing and his kingdom: preach the word; be ready in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, and exhort, with complete patience and teaching. For the time is coming when people will not endure sound teaching, but having itching ears they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own passions, and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander off into myths. As for you, always be sober-minded, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, fulfill your ministry. ...

Non nobis, Domine, non nobis, sed nomini tuo da gloriam!

From the Head of the Column

Sir Knight,

As we move further into the Holiday season, I hope you and your families are staying safe and have made new connections that may have been lost. Remember right now is also a lonely time for many. Be thankful for who and what you have. Do not want from what others have, know thy self and be happy. Remember if you are reading this, you have that luxury to do so. There are so many that may be worse off than you. So, as you take time to be there for your Family, if you are given the opportunity, reach out and be there for those that may not be as fortunate. Remember your Christian oath taken before that alter. Remember as the Christian Warriors of the faith of Jesus Christ, I ask you, do your duty, guard your ministry of life, defend your ministry of oath and trust in your ministry of Man.

Sir Knight,

You have no idea of that Thankful feeling I have to be your Grand Commander. With the current pandemic, I am continually humble that I have had the privilege to see the brightness of your exuberance of Templary, the brilliance of your thoughts of Templary and your Boundless endeavors to keep Templary going. Let us ever move forward, as those Christian Soldiers that have gone onward before us.

Happy Thanksgiving Sir Knight, from my family to yours. I pray God keeps you and yours, in his everlasting light, keeps you and yours in the comfort of his everlasting love and all of us in his everlasting Grace.
