Randall C. Mullen
Grand Commander

Fall has finally arrived, and I hope all my companion Sir Knights and their families are well and healthy. I had hoped earlier in the year that we would be meeting now face to face but it appears that telecommunication methods are the best way to meet and continue our fellowship. Trinity Commandery was the first commandery to hold a telecommunication meeting via zoom. This meeting was well attended by the membership and business was conducted in a fine manner. I am looking forward to continuing this form of meeting with the other commanderies.

Our Mid-Atlantic Departmental meeting will be held in the zoom format the first Saturday of this month. I hope to have additional information to pass on to our Sir Knights in the November insert. The leadership training will also be held in conjunction with the departmental meeting and I hope those who participate in these sessions will share their experience with us all. These sessions are open to all Sir Knights and with the ease of doing them from home it is a good opportunity to take advantage of this valuable training.

Please remember the Knight Templar Eye Foundation with your gifts. Our continual support allows the dedicated scientists to continue their research in the various fields of study that the foundation have awarded research support. You can refer to the Knight Templar magazine for ways to contribute to this important foundation.

Please continue to stay in contact with your Sir Knight companions. In these unusual times, it is more important to stay in contact with our brethren. Emails, phone calls, or just a quick snail mail note or card would do a lot to stay in contact with our companions.

I continual hope that more individuals will support the efforts of our health officials and we can get back to meeting face to face. I am looking forward to welcoming new Sir Knights into our commanderies. Please continue to recommend to our brethren as you attend your chapters and blue lodges the valuable lessons and charities that the commanderies support. I hope by keeping our brethren informed we can continue to increase our membership when we again can meet face to face.

In closing, please take the time to be with your families and I pray that all stay well and healthy during these trying times.

Yours In Templary,
Randy Mullen
Grand Commander
