Greetings Sir Knights, 29 August 2020

I hope this finds all of you well and safe.

I want to share our concerns for all those affected by Hurricane Laura.

Right now, everyone is recovering their homes, families, and businesses and that is the proper focus.

As Masons, we know that we will all pitch in to help any Brother in need and any Lodge in need as a result of the hurricane.

What we can do as Sir Knights is to help our fellow Knights and Commanderies alleviate any needs they suffered because of the hurricane.

So, in the next weeks, when time allows us to look beyond our family needs to help others and to check up on our Asylums, I am asking each Eminent Commander to let me know several things.

Do you or any of your Knights need any help and, if so, what would be of greatest help?

Did your Asylum or Ritual props, costumes, furnishings suffer any damage and, if so, what specifically would help you recover?

For those Commanderies who did not suffer any losses, please let me know if you have extra props, costumes, and furnishings that you could give to those in need?

Grand Commanders Message

Have you found Joy in your life?

Has your life brought Joy to others?

Two simple questions, but also, two questions upon which each Sir Knight should reflect daily! When viewed separately, the first question might seem "Selfish, Arrogant, Uncaring", but it also makes us consider our personal view of life in general. The second question makes us truly consider how our life has impacted those around us. I personally find that each, begs a third question, one that each Sir Knight should ask himself, and the answer to which he should live by.

How do I want to live my life, for myself or for others?

You see both questions work in harmony, you cannot answer either without considering the other. As Knights Templar's we should find great Joy in helping those around us, and in so doing, we could answer the other without hesitation. I challenge each of you to make this a part of your daily devotions, to bring Joy to others, and let us show Templary for what it truly is.

And remember Sir Knights,

"Not unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto Thy name give Glory"

With Faith & Humility,

Rory Bozeman,
