At a time in this country when the lessons of masonry are needed most, we find ourselves struggling with new challenges that no one could have foreseen (covid), as we were trying to re engage our membership and increase attendance, this is one more challenge.

The motivation behind my Masonic endeavors has been to help At a time in this country when the lessons of masonry are needed most, we find ourselves struggling with new challenges that no one could have foreseen (covid), as we were trying to re engage our membership and increase attendance, this is one more challenge.

Each of us are representatives of Templar Masonry in Nevada, the only body of Masonry that is specifically Christian. We should ever walk and act as such.

Within each of your respective Commander's please make yourself available to assist the Commander and Commandery in any way possible.

Fraternally
