February 2022

Sir Knights,

As I write, the snow is coming down at a pretty good clip and the winds are howling. This makes me especially grateful for the warmth of my house and my loving Lady, and the Brethren, Companions, and Sir Knights whose fellowship I am so privileged to share. There are, unfortunately, too many persons who are not so blessed. Let each of us remember those whose circumstances are less fortunate than our own and extend to them such assistance and encouragement as we are able. Remember that we have sworn to "give alms ..., feed the hungry, clothe the naked, and bind up the wounds of the afflicted."

This month marks the start of our Commandery Inspections. Saturday, February 5, next, at 10:00 a.m., North Star-Saint Gerard Commandery No. 4 and Mount Horeb Commandery No. 3 will confer the Illustrious Order of the Red Cross at the Concord Masonic Temple, 53 Iron Works Road, Concord. A lunch will follow the Order, available for a nominal charge of $10.00. It will be complimentary for the Candidates. Kindly make reservations with Sir Knight Earl W. Cole, Recorder, Mount Horeb Commandery, at Telephone 781-254-5325 or Email ewc18@msn.com, no later than Wednesday, February 2nd..

Exactly four weeks after, Saturday, March 5th, at 10:00 a.m., Trinity Commandery No. 1 and Saint George Commandery No. 8 will confer the Order of Malta at the Manchester Masonic Temple, 1505 Elm Street, Manchester. Again, lunch will follow the Order, for a nominal charge of $10.00. It will be complimentary for the Candidates. Kindly make reservations with the undersigned, Recorder, Trinity Commandery, at Telephone 603-759-6071 or email tsirimokos@comcast.net, no later than Wednesday March 2nd.

Many of you are looking forward to Presidents Day and the February School Vacation. Enjoy the time with your children or grandchildren while you can. It is precious and flies so quickly. Although it was longer ago than I care to admit, it often seems like yesterday that I walked my son, Sir Knight George, and his sister to Webster School. I treasure the memories.

Take care and stay safe.

Courteously,

Thomas X. Tsirimokos, K.C.T., P.G.C., P.D.C.
Chairman, Committee on Templar Jurisprudence, G.E.K.T.
Assistant Grand Prelate, Grand Commandery of New Hampshire
