SK Clinton H. Cagle, KCT

Good day fellow Templars! I hope all is well with you and your families. As I write this we are awaiting the attendance to the “Call to Conclave” For which you should all have been informed and updated on by my 8th General Order from January of 2022. It is not a Conclave I am enthusiastic about considering the subjects we will be covering. But needless to say our Grand Commandery Dais officers and several of our Past Grands will be there to do our best to represent our home state and its Commanderies. May the Lord watch over us and guide us in this endeavor.

Inspection season is in full swing and everyone will be getting back to work this year. There have been some slight modifications to the Inspection content and Procedures for this year in an attempt to ease us back into the swing of things. Our Past Grands have worked with the Inspecting Officers to ensure the inspections and the Schools of instruction will be meaningful and will help us get back on track. The administrative inspections are being held separately to allow us to see that you are comfortable and properly guided in the essentials of operating a Commandery of Knights Templar and it will help us to guide you through any snags. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact us. Your Division Commanders are your liaison and are there to work with you and help to get you the answers you need. The Grand Recorder can put you in touch with your Division Commander if you need them.

If you get a chance check out our website at: www.gcktwis.org Let us know what you think or if you have an idea for something we can add.

Easter Observances are coming up, talk to your Commander and review the information in the Knights Templar magazine.

May the blessings of the Lord be with you always.
