BUCKLER

A publication of the Grand Commandery of Minnesota

A landscape photograph of a mountain at sunset. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a bright sunburst effect with rays of light. The sky is a mix of orange, yellow, and blue. The mountain is in the foreground, with some trees and a path visible. The overall mood is serene and contemplative.

And when he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into a mountain apart to pray: and when the evening was come, he was there alone.

-Matthew 14:23

Silence is God's first language; everything else is a poor translation.

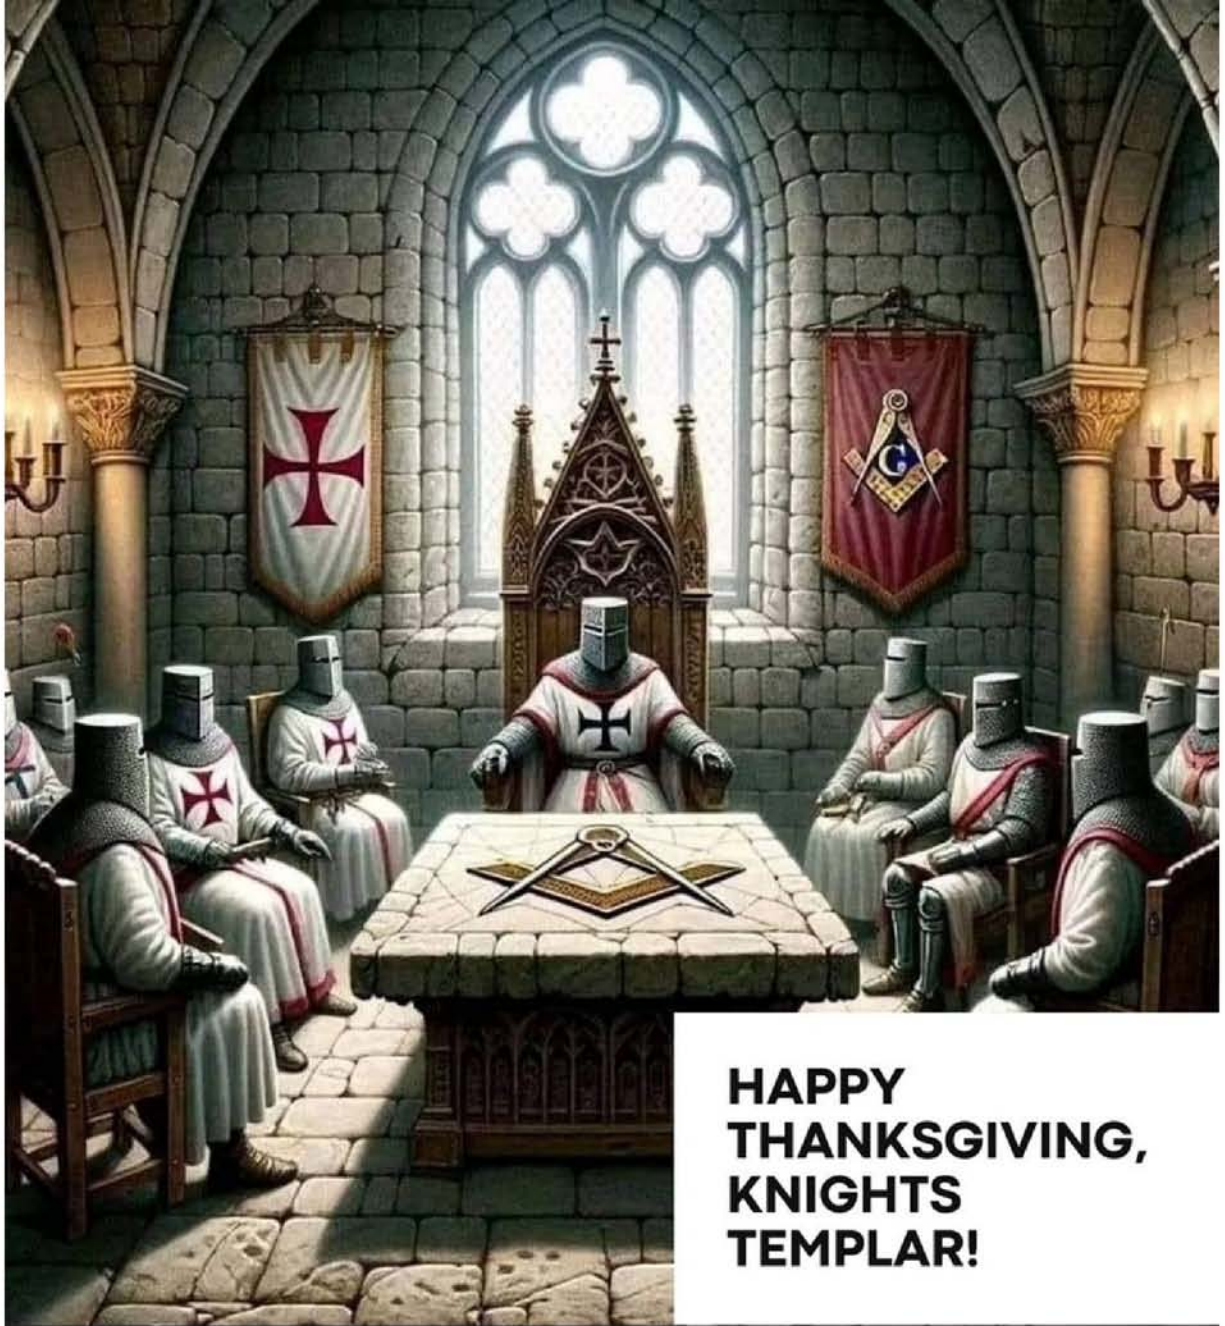

—Thomas Keating

Edification

In a world filled with constant noise and busyness, the importance of silence and solitude cannot be overstated. Join Reverend Sir Knight Ryan Stout as he delves into the value of melancholic introspection, the allure of liminal spaces, and the essential need for a Sabbath to be truly human. Explore these elements intertwined with spirituality and compassion, offering a path of healing and connection in a modern age rife with distractions. Spend four minutes with the good Reverend in his blog post Melancholia

Discoveries from the Education Committee

Spend three minutes exploring the fascinating origins of the Knights Templar and a mission to recover hidden treasures. We will visit the first Templars, their connection with Jewish Elders, the Rex Deus families, and their quest to preserve and recover ancient relics.
