November 2023

Happy Thanksgiving to all sir knights and their families,

It's that time of year again when we gather with family and friends to celebrate and give thanks to our great creator for our many blessings. This is also a time when we need to take a look around us and see what we can do to help those less fortunate than ourselves. Look to the widows and widowers who might be spending the holidays alone. A friendly face or a phone call to check on them might be the spiritual lift they need right now.

We must also remember the brother or sister who might need a friendly reminder that they have a friend to talk to or depend on. This time of year is a bad time for some people. We have a roof over our heads and food to eat. Some people don't have the luxury of a warm meal or a place to sleep.

Give thanks that you have the necessities for warmth and comfort. The good Lord has blessed each and every one of us.

Timothy 4:4-5: "For everything God created is good, and nothing is to be rejected if it is received with thanksgiving, because it is consecrated by the word"
