Doré Exploration

In 1866, the French artist Paul Gustave Louis Christophe Doré created 241 dramatic and influential woodcuts for the two-volume French edition of the Holy Scriptures, La Grande Bible de Tours. Over the next year, we will explore the wood carvings of the Passion of the Christ, analyzing both the corresponding verses and Doré's artistic interpretation. To learn more about this series, read our Blog article: Doré wood cuttings

Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and then enter into his glory?"; Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things about himself in all the scriptures.

-Luke 24:26-27

Walk with Cleopas and his companion as they journey from fear to faith on the road to Emmaus. Experience their heartbreak and confusion as they recount the devastating events of Holy Week, only to encounter the Risen Christ in the breaking of bread. This story, found in the Gospel of St. Luke, is a profound reflection on how we recognize Jesus today—through Scripture, Sacraments, and community. Discover how Christ transforms sorrow into joy and sends us forth to proclaim His resurrection. Read the full reflection on our blog: The Road to Emmaus: From Heartbreak to Resurrection
