February 1st, 2025

Can you believe it's February already? We've come through the holiday season and are heading for spring. With the wind chill plunging to -20 it's hard to remember that spring really is on its way. But every year it somehow gets here.

February has a lot of stuff packed into its shorter duration. We observe Black History Month. Groundhog Day either disappoints or reassures. Super Bowl brings another football season to a close. Valentine's Day and Presidents Day each have special meaning.

S.K. Mark Mattern, Past Grand Commander of Pennsylvania, reminded us a couple of years ago: "Valentine's Day is one that we as Knights Templar ought not forget, for it is the time to celebrate with our Ladies for all that they do for us. Our Ladies are kind enough to let us go out to our conclaves, concerned enough to make sure we get home safely, outgoing enough to come out for fellowship with other Ladies, and thoughtful enough to make sure we have great nourishment to carry on our tasks.....Sir Knights, make sure and go that extra step to make it a special month for your Lady, for without them we surely would fail."

February also brings us closer to our Grand York Rite conclave in April. Be sure to send in your reservations soon so you can participate in our annual meeting. What a great time to reconnect with our counterparts from the North Central Conference, as well as Companions and Sir Knights throughout Nebraska. We look forward to this time of fellowship as we continue the work of our Grand Commandery!
