GRAND COMMANDER'S MESSAGE

December 2025

Sir Knights,

I hope you all had a special day with family and friends as we celebrated Thanksgiving and hopefully gave thanks for all this great nation provides for us. Now we turn our attention to the Christmas holiday when we celebrate the birth of our Savior, Jesus Christ.

During this Christmas season, I challenge you to help others celebrate the greatest gift of all, the birth of Jesus, by doing one or more of the following: reach out to someone who is lonely; invite a newly widowed Brother to Christmas dinner at your home; donate to one of the many organizations that provide food and shelter services for the homeless; donate to an organization that provides toys, clothing, and food for children who will otherwise see Christmas as just another day; donate clothing you no longer wear to a Veterans' organization; or give the gift of sight by donating to our Knights Templar Eye Foundation. If you are unable to donate monetarily, consider volunteering your time or other resources. Help spread the Word of Christ through your good and kind acts.

Also, don't forget to attend a Christmas Observance this year and be sure to invite your non-York Rite brothers to attend.

- ❖ Annual Christmas Observance and Breakfast on December 14, 2025, at 10:00 a.m. at the Carson Lodge in Carson City, E.C. Peterson Commandery. More information can be obtained from the Recorder at carsonyorkrite2021@gmail.com.

- ❖ Malta and Melita Commanderies will hold their combined Christmas Observance on Wednesday, December 16, 2025, at 6:00 p.m., at the Las Vegas Masonic Lodge on Charleston Blvd, followed by dinner and entertainment.

On behalf of the Grand Commandery, I wish you all a very Merry Christmas and a New Year full of peace, blessings, health, and happiness.

Fraternally,

Richard Willson

Grand Commander of Nevada
